MASTERS AND MUSIC | Sunday Evenings at 5 PM

A Series Blending Artistic Imagery and Musical Composition
UNO Art Gallery at the Weber Fine Arts Building

Join fellow art lovers for a casual evening of exploration and entertainment. Artistic and musical insights are presented in the intimate setting of the UNO Art Gallery. Engage in conversation with the guest artists during the casual reception that follows these inspiring lectures and performances. All proceeds benefit the art and art history students and faculty at UNO.

Iggy Sumnik
Multimedia Artist

A former apprentice to Jun Kaneko and a Bemis artist-in-residence, Iggy uses repetitions and distortion of objects from nature and culture to create colorful ceramics, sculptures, prints, collages and more. Iggy has shared his knowledge with many Omaha art organizations.

BALANCE AND HARMONY

October 11th, 2015 at 5:00 PM

Ric Marchio
Builder, Musician, Sculptor

Ric creates sculptural musical instruments like mandolins, violins, kalimbas and guitars. Using recycled materials and a variety of woods, he explores unique instrumental forms resulting in rich musical timbres, which fit his eclectic mix of musical selections.

Shea Wilkinson
Fabric Artist

Imagine drawing with needle and thread. This "free motion quilting," as Wilkinson labels it, is the media she uses to delve into imagery that evokes themes of the cosmos, nature, and science. She has exhibited internationally and has won many awards for her intricate thread-based work.

THREADS AND STRINGS

January 17th, 2016 at 5:00 PM

Dr. Mary Perkinson
Violinist

An avid chamber musician who performs on both modern and baroque instruments, Dr. Perkinson founded Sound Health which brings live music to the hospital environment. She will perform a program that integrates themes of science, nature, and art.

Bob Fischbach
Movie and Theatre Critic

A well known Omaha movie and drama critic, Bob recently retired after filing nearly 3,000 reviews. He began writing movie and theater reviews in 1997. He'll share how to access films in advance of their opening dates and may offer his take on the Oscars!

REVIEWS, REVIEWS!

Op Shop & Shelby VanNordstrand
Musical Performance

UNO OpShop strives to tell the stories of opera and musical theatre through compelling performances. This performance class meets each week throughout the school year and is dedicated to bringing opera and musical theatre performance to the UNO campus and Omaha community.
